

Sophia KOUKOULIS-SPILIOTOPOULOS - GREECE

Attorney at law specialising in Community law and human rights, including gender equality. Member of the European Commission's Equality Law Network. Member of the Faculty of the National School for Judges (courses in Community law and human rights). Vice-president of the Association of Women of Southern Europe (AFEM). Member of the Law Commissions for the adaptation of family law to the Constitutional gender equality norm. Has drafted a bill implementing Directives 76/207 and 97/80 for the government of Cyprus. Member of the Scientific Committee of the multilingual law review "Hellenic Review of Human Rights" (Sakkoulas/Bruylant). Member of the Greek Council on Sex Equality which functioned between 1991 and 1992, of the Greek League for Women's Rights, of the National Council of Greek Women. Classes, lectures and numerous publications in Greek, French and English (Community law, human rights and gender equality), including articles on the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU and a book under the title "From Formal to Substantive Gender Equality. The Proposed Amendment of Directive 76/207: Comments and Suggestions", Sakkoulas/Bruylant 2001 (in English). spil@ath.forthnet.gr